DINNER WITH Jesus

A deeper relationship with Jesus can be developed by spending time with Him regularly, which involves being honest (real) when talking with Him and allowing (submitting) His Spirit to work in us.

To review your walk with Jesus, spend some time reflecting on the following questions:

Time

- How am I listening to Jesus' voice?
- Jesus is sitting next to me right now, what is He saying to me?
- What do I want to tell Him right now?

(Explore the value of time with God more – see John 3:8; Psalm 139:23-24; John 10:27)

Honesty (Being Real)

- In what ways am I allowing the Holy Spirit to show me what I need?
- If Jesus didn't know my heart, what would I share with Him?
- What stops me from being completely honest with Jesus?

(Explore the value of being real with God more – see Romans 8:26-27; John 3:20; Romans 2:15-16)

Submission (Surrender)

- In what ways does Jesus show me that He loves me deeply?
- What areas of my life do I need to give to Jesus?
- How is Jesus transforming my character to be more like Him?

(Explore the value of submission more – see John 12:32; Romans 1:16; Isaiah 50:5; Colossians 3:10)

Finally, what are one or two simple things can I start doing today to be drawn into even a closer walk with Jesus?
